AGILIROSE

MOVE YOUR JOINTS.

A physically active lifestyle – throughout all the decades of life – is becoming more and more important. As a result, consumers are seeking natural solutions to support aging and stiffening joints, so they can stay active and involved.

AGILIROSE – the natural answer for healthy joints

AGILIROSE is beneficial for maintaining healthy joints, as it has anti-inflammatory properties that improve flexibility, mobility and comfort. It helps to improve quality of life through better physical functioning of joints – for an active lifestyle at any age.

THE REWARDS OF ROSEHIP

AGILIROSE is made from the skin of wildgrowing Rosehip berries. Used since ancient times for their health benefits, these berries are sustainably collected, hand-picked, and gently dried to preserve their anti-inflammatory potency.

PROCESSED FOR PURITY

We use the highest standards to process AGILIROSE, using a patented production method to enable a water-soluble product.

POWERFUL EFFICACY

Together with a synergistic excipient (collagen hydrolysate), AGILIROSE is proven to support natural joint health.

RECOMMENDED DOSE

0.5 g AGILIROSE combined with only 5 g collagen (tested on final formulation¹)

Inflammation goes down ...

AGILIROSE reduces inflammation biomarkers (especially IL-8) and cartilage-destroying enzymes MMP1 and MMP3. It therefore helps to maintain healthy and flexible joints.

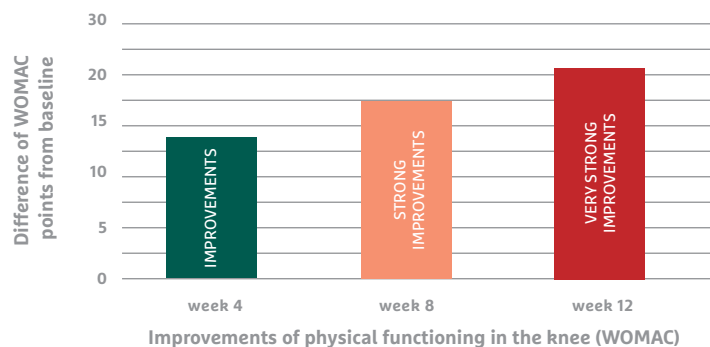

... quality of life goes up

Nearly 75% of the participants in our study report their joint comfort was significantly improved.
